Jordanians who intend to look for employment in Kuwait must henceforth obtain the special permission of the authorities the Old City daily. "Ell Jihad," reported yesterday.

The step was taken when the Jordan Ministry of Interior reported after his return from Kuwait that there were 5,000 jobless Jordanians in the Persian Gulf emirate, some of whom are sleeping in the atreets, who create a difficult problem there.

This situation deteriorated considerably after Kuwait and Jordan lifted visa restrictions, and is likely to become worse as the Kuwait authorities have decided to dismiss many Government officials for economy reasons, the Director-General added.

Jerusalem Post Reporter
The first meeting of the Chief Rabbinste preliminary elections committee is to be held tomorrow or Wednesday, with the participation of the Minister for Religious Affairs, Rabbi Y.M. Toledano.
The meeting will choose a chairman from among its eight members — expected to be the veteran Rabbi Y.L.
Maimon — and arrange its future schedule.
The first meeting was summoned on Rabbi Toledano's initiative. This was in keepling with precedent, though the regulations do not state how the first meeting is to be convened.
